

I pay for XM Radio. Therefore, I am paying for the extra services that XM can provide such as up to the minute weather and traffic. I don't think that the Government has any right to take that away.